

A woman wearing a tan bucket hat and a black and white zebra-print dress is seen from the back, looking out from the open side of a safari vehicle. The vehicle's interior, including the roof and window frame, is visible. Outside, a savanna landscape unfolds with a large body of water in the background. In the foreground, several hippos are grazing on the grass. The sky is overcast.

From the majestic elephants of Tarangire to the diverse birdlife at Lake Manyara and the unparalleled wildlife density in the Ngorongoro Crater, every moment is an adventure. Enhance your experience with a cultural tour, providing a deep dive into Tanzania's rich traditions. Don't miss this 3-day exploration of the best of African wildlife and culture. Book your Tanzania safari now and make memories that last a lifetime.

Please note:

- By default our tours include shared accommodation in twin/double rooms, unless requested and agreed otherwise. A single supplement is available upon request. Please refer to the program to see your accommodation arrangements
- Moshi and Arusha-based accommodations usually include breakfast only, unless requested and agreed otherwise. Please refer to the program to see your meal plans on each night
- Most safari lodges usually do not include tea, coffee, soft and alcoholic drinks to not have you overpay for beverages you don't need. You will be able to order and pay for drinks at the hotels' restaurants
- Tented lodges are the most common type of accommodation in the savannah. Many of them work on solar energy. This sometimes means bucket showers, limited wi-fi and no hair dryers, all in an effort to reduce environmental impact. We encourage you to do some basic research on the accommodations in your program to ensure the safari matches your travel style
